Psalm 132:1-12

O God, remember David and all the hardships he endured,
how he swore an oath to you,
a promise to the Mighty One of Jacob.

"I will not enter my house, nor will I climb into my bed,
I will not give sleep to my eyes, not even let my eyelids droop
until I find a place for God,
a dwelling for the Mighty One of Jacob." R

At Ephrathah we heard God's ark was there;
we found it in the region of Jaar.

"Let us approach the place where the Most High rests, let us kneel in worship at God's footstool."

Arise, O God, and enter your resting-place,
you and your mighty ark.

Let your priests be clothed with righteousness;
let your faithful people shout for joy. R

For your servant David's sake, do not reject your Anointed.

You made a sure promise to David,
a promise that will never be revoked:

"One of your own children I will set upon your throne.

And if they in turn keep my covenant,
the teaching that I give them,
their descendants too shall sit on your throne
in succession for ever." R

Second Reading: Revelations 1:4b-8 Leigh Carson

Homily The Rev'd Canon Steve Harnadek

Anthem: "Jesus, the Very Thought of Thee" (1999) by Bert van der Hoek

Jesus, the very thought of Thee with sweetness fills my breast;
But sweeter far Thy face to see,
and in Thy presence rest.

No voice can sing, no heart can frame,
Nor can the mem'ry find a sweeter sound than Thy blest name,
Saviour of mankind.

O hope of ev'ry contrite heart,
O joy of all the meek,
To those who fall
how kind Thou art,
How good to those who seek!

Jesus, our only joy be Thou,
As Thou our prize wilt be;
Jesus, be Thou our glory now,
And through all eternity.
